GLYNDON LIBRARY— BOOK SUGGESTIONS FOR JULY

ADULT FICTION: New to our library is Jody Hedlund's Michigan Brides Series.

- #1 - Unending Devotion
- #2 - A Noble Groom
- #3 - Captured by Love

Hedlund intricately balances romance & drama in the 1800's in these three books.

ADULT FICTION: "Under the Magnolias" T.I. Lowe; quote "This night not only marked the end of the drought, but also the end to the long-held secret we'd kept hidden under the magnolias."

ADULT NON-FICTION: In "Turn Your Season Around" (How God Transforms Your Life) by former Major League Baseball Player, Darryl Strawberry, Darryl shares the foundational principles that transformed his life from inside-out.

Furnace Fund

$40,000

At the June Congregational Meeting, it was approved to start a Furnace Fund to raise funds to replace/repair the furnaces. One of the large furnaces already is being repaired with a new heat pump. There are 2 large and 2 small furnaces that are all over 22 years old. We set a goal of $40,000 for the 3 remaining furnaces and will raise money separately to payback the building fund we borrowed from for the heat pump being replaced now.

$5,100

WMF NOTES (Women's Missionary Federation)

Maranatha News

JULY 2024

FROM PASTOR LLOYD...

*Be still and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!"
The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress. (Psalm 46:10-11 - ESV)*

Dear Folks at Maranatha,

The scheduled activities, task lists, and paper piles to sort sometimes seem endless. The text messages and emails keep coming each day. And the news sources continue bombarding us with a multitude of things to be concerned about locally as well as in our state, nation and world. So much noise crowding in on our thoughts each day! Uninterrupted time with the Lord so easily is crowded out or at least minimized, and we may not even realize it.

The week before AFLC Annual Conference, I took 4 days and 3 nights away by myself to step back from some of the noise. I spent a couple of days and nights at a personal retreat cabin that was off grid. There I had lots of undistracted time to read, pray, hike, and walk along the shore of Lake Superior. The vastness of that body of water, the view of storms coming in across it, and the sound of the lapping of the waves on the shore remind me of the awesome power of the creator behind it all! As I reflected back on some things in my life, considered the continual changes taking place in our family, and looked ahead at various uncertainties both personally and in the world around us; it was good to just have extra time to talk those things out with the Lord. I drove away from there after a couple of days with a settled conviction, "God's got this!"

I like how the NASB words the above verse: Cease striving and know that I am God, I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth. A phrase from Isaiah 30:15b also comes to mind - In quietness and trust is your strength. In one of the books I read – An Unhurried Leader, the Lasting Fruit of Daily Influence (Alan Fadling, © 2017, IV Press) the author states – Prayer is really someone we are with, more than something we do..... Prayer isn't preparatory to kingdom leadership, it is an organic and essential engine for such leadership. He also quoted Mother Teresa who said: We do our work for Jesus with Jesus and to Jesus, and that's what keeps it simple. It's not a matter of praying sometimes and working others, we pray the work.

I have come to this fresh conclusion. There is value in time away from the noise, and with that comes clarity of focus for our daily lives. But in between those extended times away, and even in between those briefer daily quiet times, I desire to live less hurried, and more confidently trusting that my life and our world is truly in the Lord's hands. And I also want to live more intentionally for and with the Lord, even as I continue to wade through the piles, lists, and messages.

Pastor Lloyd Quanbeck
